

Mustard

Grows in hay fields, roadsides, pastures, and waste areas, mustard is a taproot and shallow yellow plant with hairy stems. This weed often causes sheep and swine to have gastroenteritis after ingesting the seeds.

Mustard is a troublesome weed, not a noxious weed!

Not this mustard