

Sunflowers

Sunflowers are a troublesome weed, not a noxious weed!

Yellow ray flowers surround a dark disc of seeds and sometimes flowers, typically growing between the July and September months, is the wild sunflower. It produces covering for gamebirds and the seeds are often eaten by types of wild life.

It can grow basically anywhere!